Algebra Equation And Solutions

The Dirac equation, as the relativistic equation that describes spin 1/2 particles in quantum mechanics, can be written in terms of the Algebra of physical space (APS), which is a case of a Clifford algebra or geometric algebra that is based on the use of paravectors.. The Dirac equation in APS, including the electromagnetic interaction, reads  $\partial \psi + \psi = \psi \dagger$

We're asked to use the drop-down to form a linear equation with infinitely many solutions. So an equation with infinitely many solutions essentially has the same thing on both sides, no matter what x you pick. So first, my brain just wants to simplify this left-hand side a little bit and then think ...
