Across the Creek is a generic story of the innocence of first love. Despite lacking real character depth and my overall ho-hum attitude, I finished the book expecting it to resolve nicely. Instead, I was left with a cliffhanger.

Across the Creek (Jesse & Sarah Book 1) chose Sarah Book reading material on a cost-per-page basis. The personal size is the perfect size. Great book for first graders who are on their way to becoming fluent readers. one of my absolute favorites this year, and just one of my plain old favorites altogether.

(CNN) It took awhile, but the effort to rid a Georgia stream of its offensive name has finally succeeded. Runaway Negro Creek, a small waterway on the state's Skidaway Island near Savannah, has been officially renamed Freedom Creek. The US Board on Geographic Names, which maintains uniform usage of place names throughout the federal government, voted to OK the name change during a meeting last ...
