A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong is a long novella/short novel of about 62,000 words. It's a prequel to the already-available Blackshear Family series. The e-book includes an excerpt of about 5600 words from A Lady Awakened; the novella itself ends at about the 90% mark on your e-reader.

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong: A Blackshear Family ...

It's been some time since Ms Grant published her last full-length novel, so I was delighted when I read that she would be putting out a novella for Christmas. A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong is a prequel to her Blackshear family novels, and features the eldest brother, Andrew, who is also a kind of substitute father to his younger siblings ...

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong by Cecilia Grant

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong was eagerly awaited by this avid Cecilia Grant fan. Her Blackshear Family series is one for the few currently publishing Regency romance series I have consistently enjoyed. I love that her characters get into interesting scrapes and yet still feel like historical romance characters, not just contemporary heroes ...

I started it yesterday and I read until almost 2am, so engrossed I was, and finished it this morning. Until the 80% of it, it is practically perfect. Loved Andrew. Loved Lucy. The incredible amount of situations gone perfectly wrong - hilarious without being slapstick. I was, however, a bit put down by the ending.

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong Quotes by Cecilia Grant

All of which is to explain why I am such a fan of Cecilia Grant's regency romances in general, and of her new novella A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong in particular. Grant's heroes are not jerks. Andrew Blackshear, the hero of the novella, does not stalk Lucy Sharpe.

A Christmas Gone Perfectly Wrong (Blackshear Family) by ...

A Christmas Gone Perfectly wrong predates the family scandal which is crucial to the other books in the series and allows another view of their starchy eldest brother. Andrew and Lucy made a lovely pairing and Grant shows, as she does in the other books in the series, how a good match can help people find a balance in their lives.
