A Girl Like You Gemma

A Girl Like You is classic, unapologetic chick-lit--and I love it. Newly single Abigail is entering the dating world for the first time. Now, having broken up with her boyfriend of far too many years, Abigail is determined to find the right guy.

A Girl Like You by Gemma Burgess - Goodreads

Gemma Burgess wrote her first book, The Dating Detox, when she and her sister discussed the difficulty of finding a comfort read with cojones. Her second book, A Girl Like You, is inspired by her experiences of learning to navigate the bastard-infested waters of the London bar scene after a long time in a relationship.

I really enjoyed this book, and having read it, now want to get hold of Gemma Burgess's debut novel, The Dating Detox. A Girl Like You starts with a short prologue, with a distraught Abigail in a hotel room in Hong Kong, sporting a black eye and clearly upset about something (although it isn't until later that we find out what).

It's not like I think he's that amazing, or even - ahem - remember him that well. Perhaps my sister was right. I should have picked someone I didn't like at all for the first date. 'Sharpen your tools on someone blunt,' was her exact suggestion. I wonder if I even have any tools to sharpen. I'm not a recovering nun, by the way.

Gemma Burgess. Gemma started writing anti-romantic comedies for girls who like chicklit that comforts and charms without the silly fluffy bits. She lives in Notting Hill in London, but grew up all over the place - mostly Hong Kong. She loves talking and writing, not necessarily in that order. She also loves burgers, vodka,...

I first wrote this on my Instagram account, so if you already read it there, forgive me and be my friend anyway. Last year, I heard about Clarks Botanicals on the divine @fatmascara podcast. I ordered a $10 tester set, like the thrifty little cougar that I am, to see if it would plump and soothe my crone-like post-baby visage.

A Girl Like You. Gemma Burgess by Gemma Burgess - Read Print

A GIRL LIKE YOU was published by HarperCollins in January 2011. It's about learning to be single after a long time in a relationship, and stars three of my favourite things: smart girls, sharp banter, great bars. This cover star is clearly doing the immortal walk of shame, the little strumpet. I like that about her.
