I read "In From the Cold" based on a friends recommendation. I down loaded the book to my Kindle Apps on my IPAD and began reading while on a flight with my wife. I started laughing and laughing, reading passages to my wife, while a few other passengers were smiling - I assume they liked what I was reading to my wife.

Having lived through the cold war, and having read almost all of Le Carre's novels, I can say that this one is among the best. Although Smiley featured in the 1961 and 1962 novels, Le Carre develops his character in the subsequent novels and Smiley becomes the character for whom he is best remembered. The "hero" of "The Spy" does not feature again.
