All the Paths of Shadow is kind of a whimsical fantasy that stands well on its own even though it's part of a series. I've seen it referred to as Steampunk, and there are some very slight Steampunk elements - dirigibles in the sky, and a more scientific approach to magical gadgets.

All the Paths of Shadow Quotes Showing 1-8 of 8 "The king sent word, at odd intervals, inquiring as to Meralda's progress. She would scrawl hasty replies in return, often suppressing the impulse to add notes such as "Abandoning spellwork to continue this fascinating correspondence," or "Slept late, long breakfast, taking the day off for a ...

The Shadow is Path of Exile's dexterity/intelligence hybrid class. He prefers to use fast-hitting weapons such as daggers or claws to dart in and out of battle, while laying traps or remote mines and controlling the flow of combat. He makes surgical use of offensive spells while dodging attacks, always outmaneuvering his opponents.

All the Paths of Shadow by Frank Tuttle Book Reviews

It is called All the Paths of Shadow by Frank Tuttle. It is a mostly-standard, fantasy novel with an eighteen-year-old, female protagonist who is mage to a king (but it's a simple, young-feeling story). I like it for several reasons. First for academic propaganda, the hero saves the day with math (and magic and a smidgeon of physics).
